

ARTICLE VI
Duties of Appointed Officers

SECTION 1. The CHAIRMAN OF HORTICULTURAL JUDGES shall:

- a. Be responsible for the continuing education of horticultural judges residing in the District.
- b. Organize horticultural judging schools.
- c. Conduct appropriate horticultural judging seminars as deemed necessary.
- d. Will annually select no more than three nominees for the District Outstanding Horticultural Judge Award and submit the names to a committee consisting of himself, the District Director, the District Chairman of Arrangement Judges, and the District Member of the National Nominations Committee. This committee will select the recipient.

SECTION 2. The CHAIRMAN OF ARRANGEMENT JUDGES shall:

- a. Be responsible for the continuing education of arrangement judges residing in the District.
- b. Organize arrangement judging schools.
- c. Conduct appropriate arrangement judging seminars as deemed necessary.
- d. Will annually select no more than three nominees for the District Outstanding Arrangement Judge Award and submit the names to a committee consisting of himself, the District Director, the District Chairman of Horticulture Judges, and the District Member of the National Nomination Committee. This committee will select the recipient.

SECTION 3. The CHAIRMAN OF CONSULTING ROSARIANS shall:

- a. Be responsible for the continuing education of consulting rosarians residing in the District.
- b. Conduct appropriate seminars for consulting rosarians to maintain their credentials.
- c. Propose candidates for appointment as consulting rosarians.
- d. Maintain an up-to-date list of District consulting rosarians.
- e. Will annually select no more than three nominees for the District Outstanding Consulting Rosarian Award and submit the names to a committee consisting of himself, the District Director, and the District Member of the National Nomination Committee. This committee will select the recipient.

SECTION 4. The ROSES IN REVIEW COORDINATOR shall compile the Roses in Review reports and submit the information to the National Roses in Review Coordinator. The Roses in Review Coordinator shall prepare a report for publication in the District Bulletin and posted on the website.

SECTION 5. The EDITOR OF THE DISTRICT BULLETIN shall be responsible for the publication and distribution of a District Bulletin. The Editor shall annually prepare a District Directory of local societies and their presidents, District Officers, Consulting Rosarians, and Judges that will be offered for sale to members of The American Rose Society at a price that will more than cover the cost of its production.

SECTION 6. The PARLIAMENTARIAN shall serve in an advisory capacity at all Annual and Special District Business Meetings.

SECTION 7. The HISTORIAN shall be responsible for the collection and storage of the archives of the District. The Historian may arrange for historical talks and exhibits at District meetings.